Painting the Animals We Love

The Murray Hotel
On Macinac Island, MI

June 5-8, 2011

Tuition is $250 for a 4 Day workshop on Historic Macinac Island! You will be staying in a picturesque turn of the century hotel with four star service.

Reservation form is on the back or you may call Nora to register at 419-335-5110.

Have you always wanted to paint or draw animals? Do birds intrigue you? Have you debated the idea of drawing your dog? Portrait and wildlife artist Nora Sallows will teach you the basics of wildlife art from rendering fluffy fur to painting soulful eyes. A strong supporter of wildlife and the environment, Nora has won numerous awards for her artwork and is an accomplished pet portrait artist. She lives in Northwest Ohio with her husband, Scott and daughter, Katie, along with three rescue dogs and assorted felines. Pieces will be created using your own personal references or from Nora's personal reference library.

Four days of painting and drawing on historical and beautiful Macinac Island. As a workshop participant you will receive a group room discount. The room charge is $129 per night for this Sunday through Wednesday workshop. If you can find someone to take the workshop with you and split the cost of the room that can help reduce costs as well.

CLASS REGISTRATION FORM IS ON BACK

Please make room reservations directly with the Murray Hotel (information listed below and mention that you are taking the workshop to receive the group discount.)
